Merry Christmas	1
Poem	2

Thank you all!

We are probably going to spend an unusual Christmas this year, spoiled by the economic crisis, uncertainty of tomorrow and the worries affecting our day-to-day life. But this should be no tragedy. Maybe such a low-key Christmas is meant to give us a chance to re-discover the family and solidarity values and cherish the pleasure of being content with what we have, no matter how much or little it might be ... values that might have been lost along the way, by overrating the consumerist dimension of this holy festivity. We would like to share with you a poem by Mother Theresa from Calcutta to thank you for your commitment in supporting KISEDET projects and wish you and your families a merry Christmas and the happiest New Year.

KISEDET

Merry Christmas from Kisedet and

IT'S CHRISTMAS

It's Christmas each time you smile
to your brother, holding his hand.
It's Christmas each time
you stay silent to listen to someone.
It's Christmas each time you refuse the principles that cast people
on the fringes of society.
It's Christmas each time you hope together with the homeless
in either material or spiritual poverty.
It's Christmas each time you humbly acknowledge your limits and weakness.
It's Christmas each time you allow the Lord to be born again,
to donate him to others."
(Mather Theresa from Calcutta)
